

Cable Trays

The cable tray is a handy way to take care of the pneumatic hose and electric cables that connect items on the UniGripper or connect the UniGripper with the integrating system. The cable tray is available in different sizes either to fit with the standard robot connector or the swibot connector. The tray can, as all UniGripper parts, be customized to have optimal function for each specific application.

